

Dress Code

Lower School Grades 1-5

Colors-both boys and girls

- For both genders, students may wear dark blue, black, or khaki bottoms (denim skirts are allowed for girls), white, black and any shade of pink or blue tops.
- Both tops and bottoms must be solid with no embellishments including tie dyed, text, sequins or patterns of any type (except for JEC-logoed clothes)

White shirts and dark bottoms should be worn on Rosh Chodesh, Yom Ha'Atzma'ut, and Yom Yerushalayim.

Boys

- Kippa and Tzitzis must be worn at all times
- No shorts, jeans, sweatpants or track pants.
- Collared shirts with at least 2 buttons

Closed shoes or sneakers only (no crocs or sandals)

Please note that the dress code applies to our students during all school activities, whether on-site or on outings, whether during normal school hours or during extra-curricular activities, unless otherwise stated. Pullover sweatshirts, sweaters, and cardigans worn in school should adhere to the color code, with no logos except for a JEC logo. Please do not wear a sweatshirt in lieu of a shirt.

Enforcement of the JEC Dress Code Policy may include:

- An email home
- A conversation with the student
- A phone conversation with parents
- Requiring clothing that adheres to the dress code being brought to school

Girls

- No pants or shorts
- No sheer or low-cut tops
- Sleeve lengths - no sleeveless or capped sleeved shirts
  - Grades 3-5 - sleeves should be close to elbows
- Skirt lengths -
  - Girls grades 1-2 - skirts should be knee length
  - Girls grades 3-5 - skirts should come to the bottom of the knee or below
- No slits on the front of a skirt that go above the knee
- Jumpers and dresses should follow the guidelines for tops and should be solid colored (white, blue, pink, black).
- No visible make-up or hair coloring
- Closed shoes or sneakers only (no crocs or sandals)

When visiting the JEC or attending school functions, please help us send a consistent message to your children. We ask that all men wear Kippot and all women wear a skirt.

We thank you for granting us the privilege of partnering with you in providing a wonderful chinuch experience for your children.
